The West Michigan chapter of ISCEBS and LHRMA invites you to attend the LHRMA January membership meeting "Trends in Employee Recognition Programs" featuring Becki Good from O.C. Tanner on Thursday, January 25 at 7:45 am at the BoatWerks Restaurant.

What are the 6 Key Elements of a Great Culture? What is one of the most costly expenses an organization can face? What are the top reasons employees quit their workplace? "If you take care of your employees, they will take care of your _____".

Becki will share the 6 key elements of a great culture and how they attract, help employees to engage, and retain great people. We will walk through examples of how recognition impacts those elements, then I'll provide actionable best practices to focus on the elements and strengthen connections within your workplace.
